The ABC’s of Honey Bees Course Offering

Case Western Reserve University’s Squire Valleeview and Valley Ridge Farms, at 37125 Fairmount Blvd. in Hunting Valley, is offering a beekeeping course this winter 2016.

Mr. Richard Manley, University Farm beekeeping consultant for over four years, in conjunction with the Farm Administration, will be teaching the “ABC’s of Honey Bees” course.

The course will be offered twice from 9am to 11:30am

1. Saturday, February 13, 20, 27
2. Saturday, March 12, 19, 26

The course will cover all aspects of beginning beekeeping, honey bee biology and diseases, and hive management.

Weather permitted students would be able to participate in hives inspection including observation of brood, honey and pollen cells.

The course fee is $70 per participant. A minimum of 5 participants will be required to offer course.

To register, complete the online form at:
students.case.edu/farm/education/abcbees.fbsx

For more information, contact Patty Gregory at the farm office at 216-368-0274 or farm@case.edu