Greater Cleveland Regional Transit Authority (RTA)

The RTA is best known for providing light rail mass transit (“the Rapid”) to the Cleveland community. The Route 66x Red Line has two stations on campus. The Euclid Avenue-East 120th Street station is located near the North Residential Village, and the University Circle station is located on Glenwood Avenue near the South Residential Village. Trains run approximately every 15 minutes from 3 a.m. to 11 p.m. See pages 14 and 15 for attractions on the Red Line. The Greater Cleveland Regional Transit Authority also provides public bus transportation and the new Healthline service connecting Tower City with the Euclid Corridor. See below for a map of busses in the University Circle area.

Fares for bus, train or the HealthLine are $2. Exact change is required. All-day passes may be purchased for $4 on the bus or train.

Schedules for local bus routes are available in Wade and Fribley Area Offices, and Thwing Center. For additional information, please visit www.riderta.com or call 216.621.9500.
The Case Western Reserve University campus is located in a truly unique location. As a member institution of University Circle, Case is surrounded by world-renowned cultural, educational, and medical facilities. Little Italy, Coventry Village, and Cedar-Fairmount are all within walking or shuttle distance of campus and feature a variety of unique dining and entertainment options. Two light-rail stations and 11 bus routes connect the campus to all that Cleveland has to offer (see RTA map on page five). The following pages highlight but a few of the many things to do on and around the Case campus.

Dining establishments are ranked as “inexpensive” (under $10 per person), “moderate” ($10 to $20 per person), and “expensive” (over $20 per person). Many establishments have a broad range of offerings and span multiple price ranges. Additionally, the following symbols are used to denote the type of establishment:

- Coffee Shop – For caffeine emergencies (or just a morning pick me up)
- Quick Stop – For a lunch on the go or anytime you’re in a hurry
- Sit-Down – Relax, chat with friends, and let someone bring the food to you
- Delivery – When you would rather stay in; these establishments deliver to campus
