Emerging Leaders Program
This year-long program is offered for first-year students. It provides a chance to learn about key leadership concepts and increases one’s self-awareness around these topics. Also, it is an excellent way to become introduced to leadership opportunities on campus and interact with key leaders within the community.

Second-Year Institute
This two-day event is offered directly before classes begin in August. The purpose is to combine exploration of the academic and leadership experiences of Case second-year students.

Become a Leader

"Knowledge alone is not enough to get desired results. You must have the more elusive ability to teach and to motivate. This defines a leader, if you can’t teach and you can’t motivate, you can’t lead.”

John Wooden, Hall of Fame basketball coach, Beta Theta Pi

LEADERSHIP IN THE GREEK COMMUNITY

Living Your Values Everyday (LYVE)
The Greek Life LYVE program is a way for the chapter leadership to encourage members to participate in values programs of benefit to the chapter and expose members to other resources in the campus community. The goal of the program is to promote quality programs and the development of members in chapters under our four values.

LYCEUM-President’s Retreat
This day long leadership retreat occurs during the fall semester and is an opportunity for the chapter presidents from all Greek organizations to come together and gain essential skills and acquire valuable resources. Additionally, it enables chapter presidents to network with each other; which serves as an excellent resource throughout the year.

The Academy-Emerging Greek Retreat
The purpose of The Academy is to identify emerging leaders within chapters and begin to foster their skills for future roles within the Greek Life community. This day long retreat provides an excellent opportunity to enhance one’s leadership potential through the utilization of an Emotional Intelligence Leadership framework and network with emerging leaders throughout the Greek community.

Panhellenic Council and Interfraternity Congress
The Panhellenic Council (Panhel) and Interfraternity Congress (IFC) are the unifying, governing and coordinating bodies of the sorority and fraternity community, and serve as the communication link between the sororities, fraternities and the University administration. They serve as a forum for Greek, campus, and residence life affairs. Panhellenic Council and the Interfraternity Congress are each comprised of eight elected and one appointed officer from the Greek community.

Association of Fraternal Leadership/Values (AFLV)
Formerly MGCA, the AFLV exists to stimulate the growth and development of fraternity/sorority councils and chapter leaders by promoting leadership, educational, and values based experiences and resources for student leaders, their advisors, and the larger fraternal market.

Panhel and IFC Officer Retreats
Before the beginning of each semester, IFC and Panhel have an officer retreat in order to learn about essential skills needed to lead the Greek community, set goals for the community and for the individual boards, and allows the officers an opportunity to build relationships with each other and the members of the Greek Life Office.

SMARTT Leader
Each spring students can apply to be a peer educator for Greek Life’s Policy and Procedure, Alcohol Education, Sexual Assault Awareness programs. SMARTT leaders are trained on important topics affecting the community and taught essential presentation skills in order to better educate the Greek community.

Order of Omega
Order of Omega is an honor society recognizing members of fraternities and sororities who are academically ranked above the undergraduate GPA. Membership selection is also based on service to one's chapter, the Greek community, campus life, the university and the community.

Greek Life Assistant for Leadership
The Greek life Office at Case is devoted to ensuring a values-based experience for its students and, therefore; has designated a graduate student to plan, organize, and advance leadership initiatives within the office and the community. The GLA for Leadership is responsible for planning a leadership conference each semester, assisting with leadership retreats, and acting as a liaison and resource to chapters for leadership related concerns.

LEADERSHIP IN THE GREEK CHAPTERS

Chapter Officer or Committee Member
Each fraternity and sorority chapter prides itself on being self-governed and provides excellent leadership opportunities through either elected positions or selected committee work.

Regional and National Conferences
Every year, the national organizations of the fraternities and sororities hold a combined total of over 30 regional and national conferences to further educate the members of their organizations about important topics and provide opportunities to connect with members across generations. Check the website for a list of conferences by chapter.

Chapter Membership Development Plans
Many chapters provides members an extensive membership development plan designed by their national organization. These programs are designed to help the individual grow and develop not only into a good member of the chapter, but as a person.
